A Drinking Song.

WY H. W. LONGFELLOW.

Come, old friend, sit down and listen; From the pitcher, placed between us, How the waters lough and glisten

In the head of old Silenus. Old Silenue, bloated, drunken, Left by his inebriate satyrs; On his breast his head is sunken. Vacantly he leers and chatters.

Round about him fair Bacebantes. Bearing cymbals, flates and thyrses, Wild from Naxian groves, or Zante's Vineyards, sing delirious verses.

Thus he won, through all the nations, Bloodless victories, and the farmer Bore, as trophies and oblations,

Vines for hanners, plows for armor Judged by no o'er-zealous rigor, Much this mystic throng expresses Bucchas was the type of vigor,

And Silenus of excesses. These are ancient ethnic revels Of a faith long sloce forsaken; Now the satyrs, changed to devils, Frighten mortals wine o'er-taken.

Now to rivulets from the mountains Point the rods of fortune-tellers; Youth perpetual dwells in fountains, Not in flasks and casks and cellars. Claudius, though he sang of flagons And huge tankards filled with Rhenish,

From that flery blood of dragons Never would his own replenish. Even Redi, though he chaunted Bacchus in the Tuscan valleys, Never drank the wine he vaunted In his dithyrambic sallies.

Wreathed about with classic fables; Ne'er Falernian threw a richer Light upon Lucullus' tables. Come, old friend, sit down and listen; As it passes there between us, How its wavelets laugh and glisten

In the head of old Silenus.

Then with water fill the pitcher,

Too Turn.—A good little Banger boy refused to spell cider because he had signed the pledge. That excuse hadn't the requisite thickness, and the boy was sent to his seat to learn his lesson.

BURNT IT OFF .- The saddest thing in life is the spectacle afforded of a young person who has burnt all the bair off her forehead with a hot slate pencil and cannot afford to buy a row of PRACTICAL.—That was a practical woman who wrote to Evangelist Hammond, at St. Louis, asking prayers to lift a mortgage on her farm, that she and her little ones may not be thrown out of a home.

BRIEF REMARKS .- At the laying of the cornerstone of the new capitol of lowa, no speeches were made, except a few remarks by a workman who got his fingers pinched, and they were brief and to the point. ANOTHER BRUTE .- "My dear," said a husband to his affectionate better balf, after a matrimonial squabble, "you will never be permitted to go to beaven!"-" Wby not?"-" Because you will be wanted as a torment down below !"

Makers of fishing tackle complain of the scarcity of feathers for the manufacture of artificial flies. One of them says that all the feathers have flown to the heads of women, who are little better than artificial flies themselves, with the books very well concealed.

An Easton (Pa.,) editor growls because the water company of that place "give with every gallon of green water a half dozen fish." He wants a dozen fresh oysters with that quantity of water. Some persons can never get enough for their money.

At Brighton, a fascinating young lady on being asked recently, as she returned from the circulatthe library with the last new novel, if she had ever-read Shakspere, tossed her pretty head and answered, "Shakspere? Of course I have; I read it when it first came out."

WHAT'S YER NAME ?- An Irishman, who was standing on London-bridge, said to a youth: "Faith, and I think I know yees; what's yer name?"-"Jones," said the boy .- "Jones, Jones," said the Irishman; "and I knew seventeen ould maids by that name in Dublin; was alther of them yer mither?"

A Nebraska journal invitingly says: "Who says farmers cannot get rich in this State? Fifteen years ago a young man came to the State without a dollar in the world. Last week he went out of the State, carrying with him the sum of one dollar and thirty-eight cents, the savings of fifteen years of frugal life. Come West, young man, come West !"

They were neighbors, they died at the same time and were to be buried on the same day. Mrs. Madox came to the house of mourning to aid in the last sad offices. She stood by the coffin and muttered, "Very much changed." She seated herself, but soon arose and took a second look, repeating the remark. A third time she looked, and a third time exclaimed, "How changed." "Madam," said a bystander, "this is John West's body; Nancy Green's funeral is next door. " Mrs. Madox left.

OBITEARY OF A WESTERN EDITOR.-Ye editor eat in his ricketty chair, as worried as worried GROCERS AND PROVISION DEALERS, could be, for ye devil was grinning before him there, and "copy" ye devil said he.
Oh, ye editor grabbed his big quill pen, and it

Successors to Dowsett & Co. spluttered ye ink so free, that his manuscript looked like a war map when-" Take this," to Dealers in Lumber, Paints, Oil, Nails, Salt, and Building He scribbled and scratched through ye livelong day, no rest or refreshment had be; for the devil kept constantly coming that way, and howling for more "cop-ee!" SHIP CHANDLERS AND GENERAL COM-MISSION MERCHANTS. Honotulu, Hawaiian Islands.

Day after day he seissored and wrote, a-slaying the whole countree; while ye devil kept piping his single note: "A little more outside cop-ee! And when ye boys in ye news-room heard ye noise of ye fray, ye sound of a blow and a blas-phemous word, "He's raising ye devil!" say

And oft when a man with a grievance came in, ye editor man to see, he'd turn his back with a word of sin-" Go take to ye devil," sayed he. And ever and oft, when a proof of his work ye proprietor wanted to see, "Ye proof shall be shown by my personal clerk; you must go to ye devil,

And thus he was destined, through all of his life, by this spirit tormented to be; in hunger and poverty, sorrow and strife, always close to ye devil was he.

Ye editor died...... But we devil lived on! And ye force of life's habit ye see; for ye editor's breath no sooner was gone, than straight to ve breath no sooner was gone, than straight to ye devil went he.

noted the world over for their unrivaled salabrity of climate. Certain localities in the group are especially favored in this way.—The District of Kona, on the leeward side of Hawaii, has long been famed as a pisce of resort for invalids with bronchital, or lung diseases. With its pure and mild atmosphere, with its absolute freedom from storms or high winds, with its porous soil which, with all its rich vegetation, retains no dampness and yields no malaria, and with an unvarying temperature—that of the American or with an unvarying temperature—that of the American of Southern European June—ALL THE YEAR ROUND, the

The undersigned, at his house at Kaawaloa, a house unequaled in the district for size, cleanliness, commodiousness, and thoroughness of fornishing, is prepared to give boarders excellent rooms and all obtainable comforts in the way of diet, at the low rate of $ 5.00 per week. There are fresh water baths on the premises, and fine sea bathing within a short distance. The steamer Kilauea and the schooners Uilama and Prince, run regularly between Honolulu and the Kaawaloa landing.

The undersigned employs no agents nor runners. His house speaks for itself upon inspection.
